In honor of those in the membership, who have given outstanding effort to the promotion of stained glass and have been an active participant in Artists in Stained Glass, the current membership wishes to extend special recognition of their efforts.

Life-Time Membership and Memberships in Memorial:

Lifetime memberships can be awarded to any AISG member, whose original membership can be verified to between 1975-1985 and is nominated by at least five of the membership, past or present.

Membership in Memorial is for former AISG members, who have clearly demonstrated outstanding effort to promote stained glass and have been actively working in stained glass for most of their career. Individuals may be nominated by surviving family or anyone in the membership, who has heard of the passing of this member.

Please contact the web-site manager for details.

AISG Yearly Membership:

Please print an additional copy of the application form for your records.

- Please print clearly. The most common reason delay in posting material, is difficulty in reading contact information.
- When payment is received, you will be contacted with a login name & password for the online administration site where you can upload images of your artwork.

Individual/Studio Membership: New membership – Membership Renewal -

This membership is available for artists and studios currently working full-time to create original work. Included will be your name, address, email, web-site address, biography, up to 5 images of your original work, and any courses/workshops that you offer. Your artwork will also become part of the random gallery that appears on the site.
